This is the 33^d annual Fall College Conference, sponsored by the Diocese of Alabama and Province IV of the Episcopal Church, for college students and chaplains—lay or ordained—throughout the southeastern states. Held at Camp McDowell, conference center for the Diocese of Alabama, the weekend offers time for relaxation and recreation.

Camp McDowell is about 60 miles from Birmingham, just a few miles from Jasper. The Camp McDowell website (www.campmcdowell.com) has good maps available. You can also call Camp McDowell at 205 387-1806 for driving directions.

LIFE COMES AT YOU

Sooner or later, most of us graduate...and then...well...

That's what we'll talk about at this College Conference, with a panel of recent graduates who will tell us what worked (and what didn't) in their college careers and what they wished they'd done (or left undone) during their college years.

The panelists include lay and ordained recent graduates, married and single. But all of them were active in the Church during college and remain active now as well.

What's the cost?

$50 each, in a check made payable to Diocese of Alabama, and returned with the sign-up form from this brochure. Chaplains' ways are paid, and there may be scholarship help available from your campus center. Check with your chaplain.

What's included?

Two nights' lodging, all meals from Friday's supper through Sunday's breakfast, all program materials.

When does it start?

Registration begins at 3 PM on Friday, November 2. Our first program session will begin after supper that night

When does it end?

We'll wrap everything up at breakfast on Sunday morning and leave by 9 AM.

What will I need to bring?

A sleeping bag or bed linens, toiletries, towel and washcloth, comfortable shoes for walking, a musical instrument if you play one. We'll have Bibles and Prayer Books.

What shouldn't I bring?

No illegal drugs, no alcohol, no firearms, fire crackers, or weapons of mass destruction.

Will there be free time?

Yes...time to hike, canoe, rock, sing, and catch up with old friends or meet new ones.

What's the deadline for signing up?

We need your registration form and the check for $50 by Friday, October 26. Sorry, we won't be able to give refunds if your plans change.
